HANDBOOK OF INFORMATION

General Conference Mennonite Church

CONTENTS

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE Mennonite Church is a voluntary association of churches and individuals in North America who share the Christian faith and are committed to the principles of the New Testament. The church is organized into a hierarchy of local, regional, and national bodies. The local church is the basic unit of the denomination, and is responsible for the spiritual and social life of its members. The regional conference is composed of local churches in a particular area, and is responsible for coordinating their activities and providing support. The national conference is the highest governing body, and is responsible for the overall direction and policy of the denomination. The church is committed to the principles of peace, justice, and non-violence, and is active in promoting these values in the world.

Elaine Roupp
editor

The handbook is a comprehensive guide to the church and its activities. It contains information on the church's history, beliefs, and practices, as well as details on its organizational structure and programs. The handbook is intended for use by church members, leaders, and the general public. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the General Conference Mennonite Church and its mission in the world.

PREFACE

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MENNONITE CHURCH is an entity composed of member congregations in North and South America. It is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas in the U.S.A. Churches have united to form a Conference of Mennonites in Canada and several district conferences in the United States based largely on geographical location.

The delegate body which meets triennially is elected by individual churches on the basis of one delegate per thirty members. At the triennium sessions delegates elect three officers: president, vice-president, and secretary. The delegate body also elects members to a general board, program commissions, a seminary board, and a division of administration. These bodies meet annually in what is referred to as a Council of Commissions. It is at these sessions that action programs are planned and the annual financial budget is adopted.

A subsidiary corporation, Church Extension Services, is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas and deals with specific areas of program work.

A number of institutions and organizations, such as Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission, Mennonite Central Committee, colleges, and hospitals bear a functional relationship to the conference through the commissions. These institutions recognized as "General Conference-related" are not a part of the corporate structure of the General Conference Mennonite Church. They have their own corporate structures as set up under the statutes of the states in which they are located.
